THE STEVENS BROTHERS

*Their Lives, The Times
and Their Decoys*

BY DR. PETER J. MULLER & PEGGY LANE MULLER

348 pages, over 200 photographs • $75.00 plus $4.95 shipping & handling

This is the story of Harvey and George Stevens, two country boys from Weedsport, New York, who made some of the finest decoys in the 19th century. This book provides a historical overview of the times, biographical information on the brothers and a comprehensive analysis of their carving and painting techniques, differentiating between the work of each carver. Best of all, it includes a beautiful color presentation of over 200 photographs of their finest decoys.
